Let's go on a music adventure around the world!

Kiki doesn't want to do homework.

She always says, "Later, later!"

But one day... a percussion sprite appeared!

The sprite takes Kiki to many different places to hear special music.

They fly over Africa, Japan, Arabia, and South America!

Everywhere they go, a fun story begins.

This show is full of percussion music, dancing, and interesting stories.

You can move your body, clap your hands, and smile with the beat!

Let's join Kiki and jump into a magical music journey!

Meet Sounds Good Chamber Orchestra

Founded in 2017 and led by Conductor HSIAO Yu-ting—an outstanding young composer—Sounds Good Chamber Orchestra is a collective of passionate music lovers, including performers, conductors, and composers, who are dedicated to ceaselessly improving their musical skills and breathing new life into the music scene. In addition to promoting music culture by regularly holding large performances, family concerts, and charity events, Sounds Good also collaborates with Ifkids Theater Studio to produce musicals, further integrating music into people's lives. By commissioning composers to create new works, Sounds Good blends jazz, classical, and crossover styles into an extravaganza of diverse creative energies.

Meet Ifkids Theatre

Founded by CHAO Tzu-chiang on January 24, 2000, Ifkids Theatre was born with the vision: "From the year 2000 onward, we will see the world through the eyes of children." Since then, the company has produced 30 original productions and staged over 300 performances annually, reaching more than a million audience members. Dedicated to providing the best artistic nourishment for children, the troupe continues to create and innovate, offering high-quality performing arts that craft warm and joyful childhood memories and bring happiness that accompanies children as they grow.

Kiki and the percussion sprite went to many places.

Where would you like to go to hear music?

Feel free to share it with your family and friends!
